Guatemala

Heart of the Mayan World

GUATEMALA, HEART OF THE MUNDO MAYA

Live and feel Guatemalans heartbeat; an explosion in magic, color and adventure. A country where history is being written day by day. Landscapes are like pictures, and works of art are found on the streets and outdoors.

It is an inspiration to painters, poets and writers. Country of culture, adventure and romance. Center of the American Continent. Heart of the Mayan World!!! It is located in Central America, bordering with Mexico to the North and West; Belize and the Caribbean Sea to the Northeast; Honduras and El Salvador to the Southeast and the Pacific Ocean to the South.

Because it is located in a tropical zone, its climate is exceptional. It is known as The Country of Eternal Spring. Its average temperature is 25 degrees C. It has two seasons: the rainy season or winter (from May to October) and the dry season or summer (from November to April).

Its territory is small, rich and diverse. There are 108,889 sq. Kms. of natural and cultural richness which fill with personal experiences your trips chronicle.

Our roots are the synthesis of two cultures: the ancestral and millenary Maya and the Spanish which makes us Guatemalan. The fusion of beliefs, traditions and artistic expressions summarizes this race mixture.

Mayan history dates from 2,000 BC to 1,500AD. A period in which the Mayans produced the richness which makes them famous as a great civilization. Today they constitute over 40% of the population. The diversity of Mayan groups, more than 23 ethnic groups, is part of the vitality, dynamism and richness of the country.

Your visit to Guatemala will be enriched step by step by the hospitality of our people, makers of culture and dreams, and will fill your trip with smiles.

Guatemala is located in an uncommon geographical position. It constitutes the second Tropical Forest in America: 14 different ecosystems of an extraordinary biological diversity; 1,600 vertebrate species, among which 258 are fresh water fish; 112 amphibian; 214 reptiles; 666 birds (resident and migratory) and 251 mammals. Many of these species do not inhabit any other region of the world. It has a great part of the Mayan Biosphere, which is the largest protected area of the country, which 1,844,900 sq. kms. It is a refuge of unique species, and the settlement of the Classic Mayan Culture.

Another Guatemala awaits you and your passengers to be discovered and explored: colonial cities, Mayan Indian Markets, Mayan Archaeological sites, coffee estates' tours; sugar mills; industrial tours, golfing, and much more....

THE JEWEL OF GUATEMALA

DAY 1

WELCOME TO THE LAND OF ETERNAL SPRING! On arrival at Guatemala's La Aurora Airport, you are met by our representative, who will transfer you to Antigua, the most important and enchanting city of Colonial Guatemala, which once stretched from Chiapas in Mexico to Costa Rica. The Spaniards founded it in 1543. Nowadays Antigua is a beautiful blend of ruins, restored colonial buildings, and new buildings in colonial style. It was declared "Monument of America" in 1965. Welcome cocktail, dinner and overnight accommodations will be provided at Porta Hotel Antigua or Casa Santo Domingo.

DAY 2

This morning you will visit in Antigua, the Central Plaza, which is surrounded by the antique Cathedral, the Municipal Government, and the Palace of the Captains General, colonial churches and monasteries, as well as primitive foot-loom where colorful textiles are woven into beautiful jewelry. Lunch will be provided at a local restaurant (depending on the size of the group) as a suggestion Welten, Las Antorchas, Fonda de la Calle Real, Jardines de Porta Hotel Antigua, etc. Overnight accommodation will be provided at Porta Hotel Antigua or Casa Santo Domingo.

DAY 3

This morning you will be transferred to Sololá, to visit the traditional market, where people gather to sell their products, fresh fruits, vegetables, candy hand-woven textiles and other handicrafts. Then we will continue to Lake Atitlan, one of the most beautiful lakes in the world, with its crystalline-azure waters in the crater bowl below. Atitlan is the ideal place to come in contact with Guatemalan folklore. Twelve Indian villages surround the lake. Their inhabitants are descendants from the great Quiche, Cackchiquel and Tzutuhil nations. Dinner will be provided at the Casa Blanca Restaurant. Overnight accommodations will be provided at Porta Hotel del Lago or Hotel Atitlan.

DAY 4

Today at 09:00a.m., you will board the motor launch that will take you across the lake to the picturesque Indian village of Santiago Atitlan, one of the twelve lake-shore villages surrounding Lake Atitlan. Walk around this bustling Indian community, where you can watch weavers at work on the colorful textiles. Return to Panajachel at noon for lunch at the Tocoyal Restaurant. In the evening, you will have a Folkloric Show specially prepared for you, you will appreciate the Danza del Venado, that is the dance of the Mayas where they show the importance of the animals and their warrior spirit; then you will see the Danza de la Conquista, this is the dance of the Mayas in a battle with the Spaniards when they were conquered and finally you will see the Danza del Torito, a Mayan Dance where the animals can see what is good or bad and it also represents a bull fight, where the bull fighter is killed instead of the bull; and El Son, this is a traditional dance of the different regions of the Mayas. Overnight accommodations and dinner will be provided at Porta Hotel del Lago or Hotel Atitlan.
